

During the 1st, I tried to reject him and run away from him.
But he waited for me patiently and kindly for the three years my journey to return and be embraced by him. He still loved me and showed me love in ways I didn't and still dreamed and the way when I hated him. He was waiting for me all along suffering and waiting subsequently. I am so deeply grateful to God as I accept the night of searching for the moon. I wanted to see and cry from joy. ~~After~~ the ~~search~~ its return visit was and time in my heart that I have's and I have's ready anniversary and I am falling on the night of 10 days of Ramadan happened for a reason.

So can Allah and Alhamdulillah always and forever. I'm so grateful to my wife. Allah had this all planned out for me I came to this world Fajr al-Haram

for me. (Bismillah) I searched for my way home, I feel on my way home as I feel for the much as I feel like I have to go home to Allah.
I feel so embraced by Him.
