

Hi! My name is Ken, and I am the host of the Rosey System. I use any pronouns and identify as a transmasculine lesbian.

I am a holder of many identities and it often feels like I've lived multiple lives. This is partially due to me being a system but also being an ever-changing person on my own. I've struggled to find my footing as Ken- not the name the body holds but Ken the alter. I will be on that journey as long as Ken the alter is around, but my essence will forever live in the body long after I myself am gone. Not by death but hopefully by fusion as we continue to heal.

Art is part of my healing practice. I create out of joy (my favorite), pain, frustration, sadness... all the emotions. This is the reason why I create. I create as a release and for myself first and foremost- sharing my art with others has been a recent addition.

I am part of a system with about 15 alters. Of these alters, two openly identify as lesbians (besides me) and their names are Devina and Sarah. I'll let them introduce themselves and their art in their own voices. They create things as well and in different ways than me. Their stuff is pretty cool if I do say so myself.

We have included a Meet the Alters series with the three of us, and it includes a little intro from each of us and a description of our work. This will be my Meet the Alter intro. I have drawn the pictures for these because it was easiest (and they said I could do it best), and I chose to depict us as if we were living in Ancient Greece and in black and white. I don't have a profound or deep reason for this, I just found it fun to do and a different way of presenting us.

I hope you enjoy getting a little glimpse of me, my alters, and our art. Thanks for holding space for us.
